

Sorosis.

Sorosis enjoyed a pleasant afternoon on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. A. J. Weaver. A large membership was in attendance, and gave close attention to the program, which was an unusually entertaining one, opening with a musical number by Mrs. H. D. Smith and Mrs. Chas. Wilson which received hearty applause. A review of Enoch Arden was given by Mrs. D. P. Smith and the subject was handled in a bright original way. Mrs. Edwin Steele followed with an interesting treatise of the Influence on American Literature of Robert and Mrs. Browning. Current Events brought out an animated discussion which came to a close only at the serving of a most excellent lunch. Mrs. Weaver being assisted by Miss Nena Morris. Announcement was made that Mrs. A. E. Hill will be the hostess at the next meeting in three weeks.

Midland Concert Co.

The Midland Concert Co., appeared at the Gehling last Friday evening under the auspices of the Sphinx club. This is one of the best entertainments of its kind on the road and all who were so fortunate as to attend were given a musical treat. Every member of the company was worthy of special mention as they were all stars in their respective parts. This was the second of the Sphinx lecture course and the club is to be commended for furnishing our people with such high class entertainment.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A.G. Wanner.

Entertained.

Miss Leah Poteet entertained about thirty of her friends Friday evening at her spacious home in the eastern part of this city. The evening was most pleasantly spent in various games of whist, flinch and others. Dainty refreshments added to the pleasures of the evening.
